Growing Friendships Make Family Ties

Tarleton. Just one word, but yet it means so much to so many. This one word has a different meaning for all who come in contact with it. But Tarleton is more than just a word, and Tarleton is more than just another University. But what makes this place so special? Each student has his own reason as to why Tarleton means so much, but one thing is certain — Tarleton has a special feeling. Perhaps it is the friendly atmosphere, the secure feeling of family. No matter what the stated reason, one thing is certain, Tarleton — there's nothin' like it!

"The friends I've made in college mean a lot to me. They're more than friends — They've become just like family."

Flat Tops And Ropers

At one point in time the Tarleton student was easily identified with the cowboy image, but times have changed. Now the typical look of the Tarleton student is almost impossible to define. Students at Tarleton have become increasingly individual and the changes have become more apparent with the passage of time. The common expression "it takes all kinds" seems to fit now more than ever. Tarleton has become a place where students can be themselves and yet, still fit in with the other students on campus. From mini-skirt to three piece suits, from flat tops to ropers, Tarleton has it all!

Small Classes And Concerned Faculty Offer A Personal Touch

Being a student at Tarleton State University means being more than just another number. As one of the smaller Universities in the state, Tarleton has the honor of offering its students a more personalized education. Professors are more than authoritative figures who appear majestically in the door as the bell rings, lecture until the next bell, and then disappear into the hallway. More often than not, teachers at Tarleton know their students by name. The smaller classes, the concerned educators, and the attitude of helping the student in any way possible make Tarleton a very special place.

"We have the opportunity to obtain a personal relationship with the faculty at TSU, and I think that has and will be a positive influence in our achievement."

TSU And Stephenville

A Winning Combination

Just right, that's how the location of Tarleton is described. Not too far from the big cities of Dallas and Ft. Worth, Tarleton is close enough to enjoy the excitement these cities offer, yet far enough away to provide a small community for students. Stephenville provides students with the opportunity to obtain higher education while enjoying the quiet atmosphere offered by small town life. Tarleton also has the unique advantage of involving the community in its activities.

Homecoming floats parade through Stephenville streets, while University concerts, fine arts presentations, and festivals are open to the city residents. Students are encouraged to get involved in the community by organizations with such projects as working with kids at the foster home, the TSEA appreciation of local teachers, and patronizing local merchants. TSU and Stephenville — a winning combination.

The Stephenville community is small and family oriented, which makes the adjustment of leaving home easier. It's the kind of town you'd really like to live in.

Past And Present

Pride And Progress

Tarleton is a University that is expanding, growing, becoming "new" and "improved": But at the same time, Tarleton is holding onto its past. A mixture of the past and present — an obvious fact when looking at the campus of Tarleton. From traditions such as the legend of the cannon, the Old Presidents' Home (Now the Hall Of Presidents), and the Old Administration Building, to the New Business and Hydrology Building and the New Administration Building, the architectural structures of the campus reflect its past history and its exciting plans for the future. Much to the credit of the grounds crew, better known as the Toro Team, the campus is kept clean and neatly groomed. The Tarleton State University campus allows students a beautiful location in which to pursue their academic endeavors. TSU mixes a sense of historical significance as well as a progressive and exciting outlook for the future.

"I came to Tarleton with the intention of leaving and moving on to bigger and better things. But as I got to know the people, the university, the faculty, and more about other schools in the state, I realized there is not a more genuine, warm, or better place than Tarleton."

-John Thiele Whitney
Senior CIS

When It Comes To Spirit, We're All Part Of The Team

Getting involved, that is what school spirit is all about at Tarleton. From ROTC to Fraternities and Sororities, to Social Clubs and Professional Organizations, there is something for each student. Athletics provides the school with pride and attending sports events gives students a medium for showing visual support of TSU. The cheerleaders, Texan Stars, Band and of course the outrageous Purple Poo encourage students to cheer their teams onto victory. Poo signs remind students of important upcoming events as well as voicing opinions that might not dare be expressed elsewhere. But school spirit is more than joining clubs and organizations, and more than attending sports events. School spirit is each student being proud of Tarleton, school spirit is each student being sure that there is no other school quite like TSU. Tarleton — there's nothin' like it!

POO SAY:

"The spirit of carrying a football for the Texans runs through each of us! OSCAR P LIVES!"

“Unless you get involved in the activities on campus you don’t really realize all of what college can be. Getting involved helps new students adjust faster and is a great way to get to know other students.”

— Fall —

Sharing lead vocals and guitar duties with Jeff Hanna, Jimmy Ibbotson joined the band in 1969.

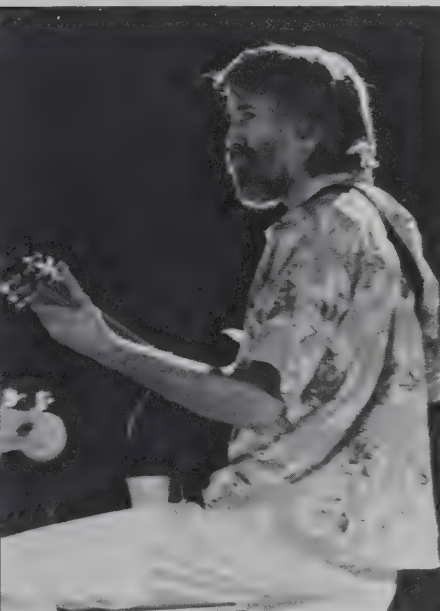

Multi-talented John McEuen was a favorite of the crowd as he performed on the banjo, mandolin, guitar, and fiddle.

A founding member of the Dirt Band, Jeff Hanna is kept busy with his duties as vocalist, lead guitar player, and song writer.

... of the founding Dirt Band members are still performing with the Band. They include Jeff Hanna, Jimmie Fadden, and pictured here — John McEuen.

Concert provides an evening of DIRT!

We want Dirt ... We want Dirt ... The crowd chanted to bring on the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band for the first fall concert of 1986. And the audience in Wisdom Gym got what they wanted.

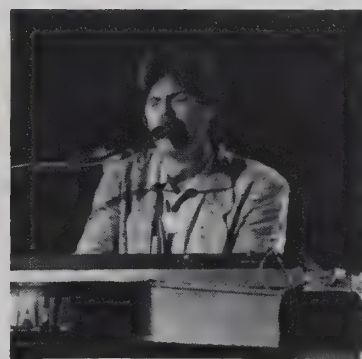

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band was first formed in 1967 and have been performing for 19 years. Three of the founding members are still with the band: Jeff Hanna, Jimmie Fadden, and John McEuen. Since the band's formation, Bobby Carpenter and Jimmy Ibbotson have joined one of the longest lived bands in music history.

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band proved excellent entertainers. Their music consisted of a variety of styles — it offered something to every one regardless of musical preference. Their mellow, country ballads along with upbeat contemporary country-rock songs blended into a powerful concert.

Their most famous release "Will The Circle Be Unbroken", a country classic, was included in their performance. "Shot Full of Love" and "Sharecropper's Dream" were also included in their many hits performed. During the band's performance of such old favorites such as "Rocky Top" the audience participation was at it's peak.

The reaction of the crowd proved that the Special Events Committee had planned well for a night the students would enjoy.

Members of the Special Events Committee were responsible for setting up the Gym, as well as for the clean up afterwards.

The newest official Dirt Band member, Bobby Carpenter, played keyboards and provided many of the background vocals and harmonies during the performance.

Opening for the Dirt Band was Houston singer-song writer Lyle Lovitt, who has just released his first album.

SEC presents a night with the BANGLES

The Special Events Committee (SEC) is responsible for arranging concerts each semester for Tarleton students. Because the musical likes and dislikes of the student body are of such a great variety, SEC attempts to satisfy all of the students by offering a range of concert performers. On November 7th, one of the fastest rising pop groups in the music industry performed in Wisdom Gym. E'I'E'I'O opened the show for the Bangles, a female band containing 4 members. The Bangles performed several songs including "Manic Monday" and "If She Knew What She Wants".

The concert concluded as the Bangles returned to the stage for an encore. They then performed their most successful hit to date "Walk Like An Egyptian", which spent several weeks on the Top 40 charts. With the Bangles, SEC hoped to satisfy the students interested in pop music. While continuing to offer big-name country artists, SEC recognizes the varied interests of the student body and hopes to offer concerts that will appeal to the biggest number of students possible.

The four member all female band known as the Bangles drew much attention as their 60's style sound began receive more air time on the popular M-TV station.

The musical group E'I'E'I'O opened for the Bangles.

The Bangles were presented by the Special Events Committee for the minimal price of $3.00 for students.

E!*E!*O is a band that is gaining in popularity as it is becoming more known to the music television viewers.

Many Events At TSU For HALLOWEEN

This year's Halloween celebration included many activities in which students could participate. T-CAB held their annual Haunted House, there was a Halloween Dance held for students, and this year the University sponsored a Halloween Carnival in which campus organizations could participate.

Intramural

Students Participate In INTRAMURALS

Intramural competition covered fourteen sports, from archery to weightlifting, with competition in men's and women's divisions. Team winners were: Flag Football - CHOPS; Women's Volleyball - Peppers; Co-Rec Volleyball - Fadin' Renegades; Men's Volleyball - Lagnaf; Bowling - Pace Setters; Men's Basketball - Hoopsters; Women's Basketball - Rocketts; Men's Softball - Donkey Slammers; Women's Softball - Warren's Warriors. Top individuals were: Archery - Tommy Lovelace; Men's Tennis - Tim Huisman; Women's Tennis - Pam Parks; Men's Raquetball A - Harold Pomykal; Men's Raquetball B - Craig Weiland; Women's Raquetball - Lania Phillips; 5K Run - Steve Schulte; Men's One-on-One Basketball - Frank Haist (under 6') and Tom Fleisher (over 6'); Women's One-on-One Basketball - Margaret Smajstrla; Men's Weightlifting - Jim McKenzie; Women's Weightlifting - Carrie Basham.

The traditional Midnight Breakfast held on Friday morning is the start of the weekend festivities.

Students attend the pep rally on Thursday night to show their support for the Texans, and to show the spirit that brings the TSU students of past and present together for this special football game.

Students Dana Carpenter and Sonny Cruse were among the students to attend the breakfast held at midnight.

Homecoming victory gives students a reason to CELEBRATE

Homecoming week at Tarleton was one of great activity and visible pride in Tarleton State University. During the Homecoming celebration the many traditions of Tarleton were enacted as students on campus looked forward to participating. Throughout the week prior to the Homecoming football game, freshman girls carried their traditional fish around to obtain signatures. Dress up days were named so that all students could show support for their team. During that week students could also be found at various locations in and around the city working until all hours of the night to complete their floats for the parade.

The Thursday night pep rally signaled that the beating of the drum was to begin, and students took their turns as the traditional drummers. With 12:00 am and the midnight breakfast that was served in the cafeteria, the weekend's activities were underway. The big game was drawing near . . .

Members of the Student Senate served the students at the midnight breakfast. Students John Hughes, Stephen Shepard, and Jennifer Wright were among those who worked during the early morning hours.

A feeling of family brought students and alumni together as they showed pride in Tarleton during Homecoming week.

Dr. Thompson was on hand to help the members of the football team start the first shift of the drumming. Once the beating of the drum has begun, it continues until the start of the game.

DOUBLE ROYALTY

Much to everyone's surprise, Tarleton was to have two Homecoming Queens! The vote had ended in an exact tie. It seemed Tarleton students had not been able to choose between the two outstanding nominees Kenda Pettit and Carrie Byrd. Miss Byrd, Business Major from Millsap, and Miss Pettit, Management Major from Azle, were featured in the parade and at the game on Saturday.

... Spirits soar as students look to game ...

Friday kept the spirit alive as students continued to beat the drum. Also, that night the Fine Arts Center was the location of Friday Night Live, the talent show that allowed students as well as alumni to participate. The night was ended as students in the snake dance made their way to the bonfire where the naming of the Homecoming Queen was to take place.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIVE!

Students were given an opportunity to participate in the Homecoming talent show. Known as Friday Night Live, the show allowed students and alumni to show off their abilities, as well as provide good entertainment.

Of course, what football game would be complete without the ever popular Purple Poo. Poo Alumni were even on hand for the Homecoming celebration.

... Victory sparked the night's celebration.

Saturday was the peak of the spirit filled week. Early that morning, the organizations of the campus met at the stadium with their float entries for the parade. With the winner announced as the Gamma Sigma Sigma entry, the parade began. The route of the parade took the groups through the town square where students, friends, family, and town residents took delight in watching the passing of the floats. Students given the honor of riding in the parade showed their appreciation for the Stephenville residents by throwing candy to the children who lined the streets. Students, Faculty, and Alumni alike gathered at the stadium to support the Texans. The fans were not to be disappointed. With the final score 38 to 22 over the McMurry Indians, the Tarleton Texan victory gave the fans reason to celebrate. Students were given a choice of two dances, one rock and one country, while alumni had a dance of their own. The student dances were held on campus, one in the Student Center and the other in the Intramural Gym.

The alumni gathered at the Armory for their Homecoming dance. The family feeling, the pride in Tarleton State University, and the unity of spirit were all evident throughout the week as student, faculty, and friends participated in the activities. The devotion of the fans for the Texans was answered by their victory over the Indians. Homecoming 1986 was one to remember, both for the uniqueness of having two queens as well as two dances, and for the victorious ending to the game Saturday.

to help the Texans in their victory by the Texan cheerleading squad and the Purple Poo. The fans in the crowd were also involved in cheering the team onto victory. The popular Purple Poo continued their tradition of entertaining the crowd as their antics on the sidelines kept the fans laughing throughout the game.

The Tarleton Texans thrilled their fans with a victory for the 1986 Homecoming celebration.

Megaphones, Frisbees, and Footballs were distributed to the crowd during the game.

Suanne King practices her Southern charm on Brad Williams during rehearsal for "A Streetcar Named Desire", a Tennessee Williams play.

Blanche and her sister Stella (Jaimie Spencer) discuss the past during rehearsal for the Fine Arts Center production.

Playing the lead role requires dedication and hours of rehearsal. Suanne King, senior from Amarillo, and Brad Williams, sophomore from Lubbock, had both for their portrayals of Blanche and Stanley.

Players open season with “DESIRE”

The first production of the season for the TSU Players featured the Pulitzer prize winning play of Tennessee Williams, “A Streetcar Named Desire”. The performances ran three nights: October 2, 3, and 4 in the Theater of the Fine Arts Center.

Suanne King played the lead of Blanche in the story of a gentle Southern woman unable to face raw loneliness after her husband's death. Brad Williams assumed the role of Stanley. The part of Stella, Blanche's sister, was played by Jamie Spencer. “Streetcar” is described as a psychologically complex drama.

Many hours of preparation were required to present the play. Lines were rehearsed; sets were designed; but the lengthy hours of preparation were evident as the players stepped onto the stage. In addition to the nightly performances, “A Streetcar Named Desire” was also presented as a Saturday Matinee.

The Tarleton Player's presented the play on October 2, 3, and 4 in the Clyde H. Well's Fine Arts Center.

Behind the scenes, students spent time building and developing sets, costumes, props, and lighting in order to make a successful show.

Fine Arts
production features
ALICE

Bringing the imaginary world of Wonderland to life, the Department of Fine Arts and Speech presented Lewis Carroll's classic "Alice In Wonderland" on November 13, 14, and 15 in the Clyde H. Wells Fine Arts Center. The presentation included more than 30 animal costumes in order to create the magic world encountered by Alice once she passed "through the looking glass". The character of "Alice" played by junior Kathy Norris was the only real character among the bright costumes and the larger than life sets. Matinees were provided all three days during the run of the play which provided fun and entertainment for adults and children alike. Directing her first full length production at Tarleton was Ms. Eleanor Bynoe, a recent addition to the faculty here at the University.

The classic "Alice In Wonderland" by Lewis Carroll was presented in the Clyde Wells Fine Arts Center on November 13, 14, and 15.

Playing opposite Kathy Norris was Copperas Cove freshman Robin Nabarro in the part of the White Rabbit.

Kathy Norris, junior, from Snyder was cast as Alice, the lead, in the Fine Arts Center production of "Alice In Wonderland".

The characters in the imaginary world of Wonderland included a vast assortment of animals.

Students go to Kansas for a weekend ROAD-TRIP

Seven buses filled with Tarleton students and faculty departed Stephenville, Texas at 9:00 am on the morning of November 21st, 1986. The buses had a common destination- The Sunflower Bowl in Winfield, Kansas. The Texans were competing against Benedictine College. The Sunflower Bowl represented the last game of the championship season, and Texan supporters traveled to see that last victory. The Band, ROTC, Purple Poo, Plowboys, faculty, and student body were to be represented in the stands.

Excused from Friday classes in order to attend the game, buses pulled out at 9:00 am. The predicted nine hour trip turned into twelve. A bus breakdown in Norman, Oklahoma forced one busload of students to transfer to other buses. A brief stop in a mall was made while bus repairs were made. Despite the fact that a bus broke down and the trip took what seemed an eternity, the students enjoyed the ride to Kansas. Individual buses seemed to compete for bragging rights as to the loudest and most partying buses. Music was turned up ... LOUD ... as people danced in the aisle. Games and cheers got everyone on a bus involved.

As the buses finally arrived at the hotel, they learned of a party being thrown in their honor. "Rockin' Rodney" was the night's DJ and he proceeded to play 70's vintage rock which is popular among Kansas college students. Such music was not equally as popular among Texans and Run DMC soon replaced the house music.

Students partied all night, visiting in other rooms and joking with hotel employees. When morning arrived, students encountered another exciting adventure; waiting for the buses to arrive and make the final one hour journey to the stadium. The buses were late and students grew impatient waiting as the time drew nearer and nearer for the game to commence. The buses finally arrived, and as time was running out the final part of the trip was undertaken. Bus 4 with their driver Ted, who promised to get them there on time, was the first to arrive. Just in time for the kick off, they were greeted at the gate by Dr. Thompson. Tarleton students swarmed the stadium and immediately their presence was noted. They began cheering as they made their way around the field to the stands.

Although friendly competition existed between the buses on the trip, all the passengers became Texans, yelling for the Purple and White at the game. The fans definately had something to yell about as Tarleton won the Sunflower Bowl 40 to 38 in a very competitive game. Gaylon Bowser was named MVP. The victory definately made the trip back to Stephenville seem shorter.

For the team, it will be the weekend TSU won the Sunflower Bowl. For the students, it will be the weekend they traveled to Kansas to support their team. It was a weekend of fun; A weekend of competition; A weekend of meeting new people and making new friends. It was a weekend to remember.

Tarleton's section of the stands was filled with students who made their presence known as everyone cheered the Texans on. The fans of the other team could not be heard over Tarleton.

The popular Wainright Rifle Corps was on hand at the game to perform for the cheering crowd during the half-time activities presented by Tarleton.

Because of the intensity of the competition, the possibility for injury during the game was increased. Trainers, managers, and coaches all made the trip to the Sunflower Bowl to insure the safety of the players, and to use their expertise during the game.

The buses pulled into the parking lot as the kick off took place. Waiting here in the background is bus 4, the first bus to arrive on the scene. Bus 4 took pride in this fact and gave the credit to their driver Ted. The Grassburr staff was among the passengers on this bus.

The victory at the Sunflower Bowl was one that Texan fans proudly displayed. Devoted TSU fans had double reason to celebrate with the Conference Championship and the Sunflower Bowl victory.

The band was on hand to perform for the crowd that gathered in the Fine Arts Center to view the game film from the 40 to 38 victory over Benedictine College.

The Kansas trip is celebrated

Celebrating the Sunflower victory did not stop when the buses returned to Stephenville. In fact, celebrating continued into the Spring semester when a "Sunflower Celebration" was held in the Fine Arts Center.

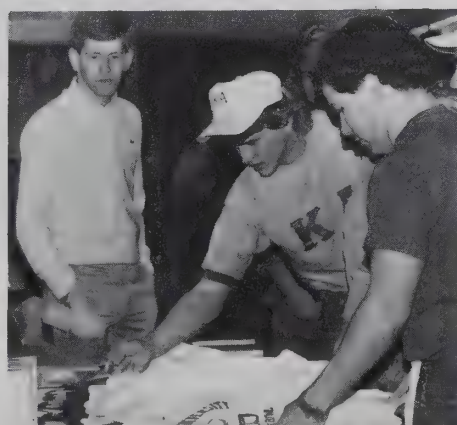

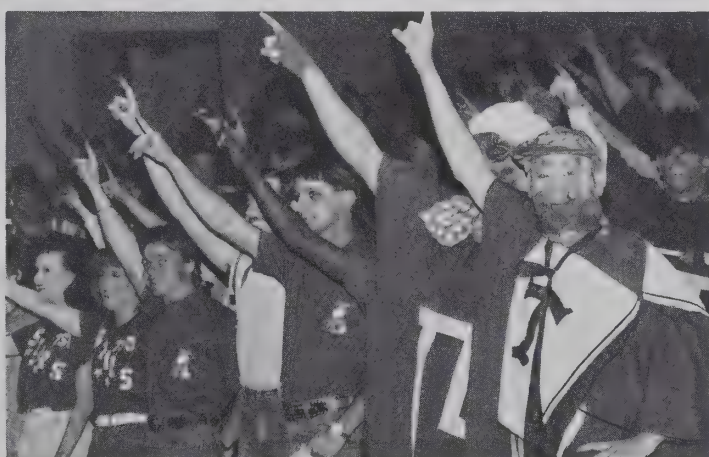

The celebration included a viewing of the game film. Sweatshirts and T-shirts were also available at the night's festivities.

The celebration was somewhat of a reunion for some students who attended the game in Kansas. For others it was the opportunity to see the Texans in Bowl action for the first time.

Sharon Ramsey displays one of the T-shirts that were available to the public before the Sunflower Bowl, when it was announced that the Texans had won the 1986 TIAA Conference Championship.

The film of the game was shown in a very crowded Fine Arts Center Auditorium.

Sweatshirts advertising the Sunflower Bowl victory were sold at the showing of the films, and later were available in the Campus Store.

—Fall—

The Delta Zetas and their Beaus also entertained the crowd in the Fine Arts Center Auditorium.

Alpha Gamma Delta delighted the audience with a medley of songs from the musical "A Sound Of Music" and were awarded first prize for their efforts.

The "KA Shuffle" was styled after the ever popular "Superbowl Shuffle".

The entry by the music fraternity Phi Mu Alpha received the highest honors for the night.

Delta Zeta hosts annual step SING

The Second Annual Delta Zeta Step Sing was held in the Clyde Wells Fine Arts Center with funds raised going to the speech and hearing impaired, the sorority's national philanthropy.

Great performances entertained the large crowd which gathered in the auditorium. Some acts were primarily humorous, others serious, as organizations competed for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and Grand Prize.

The KA's performed the "KA Shuffle" — a takeoff on the successful "Superbowl Shuffle" of the Chicago Bears. Pi Sigma Epsilon also performed a humorous skit as they presented their interpretation of Ray Steaven's "Pirate Song". Jeff Cooper, clad in pink and green, and dangling earrings, was featured as the "gay pirate".

Third prize went to Delta Chi for their somewhat dramatic presentation of Edgar Allan Poe's The Raven. Lambda Chi Alpha came in second with their performance of "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling," featured most recently in the blockbuster film Top Gun. Alpha Gamma Delta received first place honors. They did a medley of tunes from The Sound Of Music. The grand prize winners for the Step Sing were Phi Mu Alpha, the music fraternity. They performed a moving rendition of the classic "Take Me Out To The Ball Game".

The Second Annual Step Sing accomplished a great deal for Delta Zeta. They provided competition to the contestants, they provided entertainment for the audience, but most importantly, they raised money for the speech and hearing impaired.

Lambda Chi included the aid of one of their Little Crescents in their performance.

TSU celebrates the spirit of the SEASON

The approach of the Christmas season at TSU brought a change in atmosphere to the campus. Students began to find themselves filled with the spirit of the season, as well as looking forward to that break from classes known as the ever-popular Christmas vacation. As students found themselves preparing for the anxiety of finals, they also found solace in the promise of the joyful holidays, time they could devote to family and friends. However, not all of the Christmas celebrating was done after students left the campus at the end of the fall semester. Tarleton had its own way to greet the season. With the purchase of a huge artificial tree that will become a new tradition on campus, the new Administration building was decorated to add to the festive spirit. The giant tree was quite an impressive sight with all of its lights. An early Christmas celebration was held with students singing around the smaller outdoor tree so that students would have an opportunity to share a part of Christmas with their friends here at the university.

The celebration of Christmas before finals began was an opportunity for students to share the joy of the season with their friends here at TSU.

Fall

In addition to the huge Christmas tree in the new Administration building, Tarleton also had an outdoor tree that was decorated by the organizations on campus.

The University Singers were on hand to perform for the students at the TSU Christmas celebration held on the lawn in front of the Student Center.

Students were provided with the words to favorite Christmas carols.

— Fall —

Students celebrate Christmas before heading home . . .

Some students came up with their own ideas about decorating for the holidays and celebrating the spirit of the season.

The Christmas lights on campus provided a beautiful sight for the students and faculty of Tarleton, as well as for the residents of Stephenville.

TSU students stood in line to talk to Santa Claus at the campus-wide celebration.

In an effort to bring the holidays to campus and to build up the spirit of the season, students on campus decorated their rooms, their doors, and some halls in the dorms even had their own Christmas trees. Of course, no celebration would be complete without a visit from Santa Claus himself, and TSU was no exception. The special guest made an appearance in the Administration building so that he could talk to the students of Tarleton. Celebrating the Christmas season was a way to end the fall semester on a positive note, as well as a way to survive the stress of the end of semester tests.

T A Look At SU

During the Fall Semester the Freshmen and Transfer students must acquaint themselves with the campus and learn their way around. Soon the buildings of TSU and all of its surrounding area become home. The campus of Tarleton State University is a beautiful one with its mixture of old and new buildings and its lovely scenic areas. Students are also given an opportunity to adjust to University life through involvement with the many organizations of TSU.

“The different personalities of the students of Tarleton make up the backbone of the university. Students can be themselves, yet still fit in with the college lifestyle.”

CAMPUS LIFE

SPRING 1987

Tarleton-
There's Nothin'
Like It!

—Spring—

Girls Have Chance Thanks To SADIE

The traditional Sadie Hawkins Dance was held at Bostocks on the night of Tuesday, February 10th. Held during the week before Valentine's Day, the spring formal gave the ladies of Tarleton a chance to ask their favorite men out for the evening.

Students Given A Chance To GAMBLE

The Tarleton Center Advisory Board (T-CAB) sponsored the fourth annual Casino Night in the game room of the Tarleton Center. Those in charge provided students with play money to be used at the games which included Craps, Roulette, Poker, Blackjack, Kino and more. The main event of the evening was the auction which included such prizes as a diamond sapphire ring, and dinner at local restaurants.

Reba and Pake: The talented McEntire FAMILY

The night of February 25th brought great excitement to the TSU campus as SEC presented Reba and Pake McEntire live in Wisdom Gym. The performers, brother and sister, played to a packed house in a show that featured the sounds of traditional country music. The show opened with Pake who thrilled the audience with his popular songs "Every Night", "Too Old To Grow Up Now", and "Heart Versus Heart", a song he released with his sister Reba. Reba McEntire was the featured performer of the concert. She presented a show that included many of her hit songs such as: "Whoever's In New England", "Little Rock", "Somebody Should Leave", "What Am I Gonna Do Without You", and her newest single, "Let

The Music Lift You Up". Reba McEntire, who has been honored with both The Entertainer Of The Year Award and The Female Entertainer Of The Year Award, kept the full attention of the audience as she sang, joked, and answered questions that came from the audience. The concert finished with Reba alone on stage in an acappella version of the song "Sweet Dreams" which had the entire crowd on their feet. After the concert both Reba and Pake were available for autographs.

In addition to his talented vocal voice, Pake McEntire also entertained the crowd with his abilities as a musician. After his performance he introduced Reba, whom he said was a "very good friend".

Reba's show included several of her own Gospel favorites, one being the standard "Amazing Grace".

In answer to the question "Where are your wranglers?", Reba said they were too uncomfortable. One of the stage guards suggested she try 501s, but the crowd sounded their disagreement.

Both Reba and Pake McEntire provided the audience with performances that were energy filled as well as fun.

Amanda Hall was cast as Madame DuBonnet and Will Hutson played Percival Brown for the production that was directed by Mary Jane Mingus.

Cathey Brown played Polly Brown in the musical which depicted the era in history known as the "Roaring Twenties". The musical contained three acts with two brief intermissions.

The costumes for the play were created in the tradition of the flappers of the 1920's. Shop Foreman for the Costume Department of the Production Crews was Jaimie Spencer Ratliff.

A musical set in the era of FLAPPERS

The Tarleton Fine Arts Department presented Sandy Wilson's "The Boy Friend" as the first production of the 1987 Spring semester. Audiences gathered to see the production at 7:30 pm on both February 27th and 28th in the auditorium, and also at 2:00 pm on the 28th for a special matinee. The Freshman Representatives Council served as ushers at all of the presentations. The performances of the musical were dedicated to the memory of Mr. Clyde H. Wells, after whom the Fine Arts Center is named. The time period of the play was set in the 1920's flapper era, and the costumes reflected this historical period. The production contained three acts with different scenes: the drawing room of the Villa Caprice (A Finishing School on the outskirts of Nice), The Plage, and The Terrace of the Cafe Pataplon. Each act brought with it a number of musical numbers, with seventeen being the total of musical numbers in the production. "The Boy Friend" was a delight for all who attended.

"The Boy Friend" was presented in the Auditorium of the Clyde H. Wells Fine Arts Center on Friday, February 27th and twice on Saturday, February 28th.

An eleven member orchestra provided the instrumental background for the musical numbers of the production.

Costume Designer for the musical was Mary Jane Mingus of Tarleton's Fine Arts Department. Mingus was also the director of the production.

Lead singer of the group Sawyer Brown, Mark Miller is known for his energetic performances. But he can also calm his mood and touch the hearts of those in the audience as he sings mellow love ballads such as "Don't Fall Now".

Sawyer Brown Has TSU SHAKIN'

The Special Events Committee pleased many students and members of the Stephenville community as they brought one of the top groups in country music to Wisdom Gym on April 2nd. Sawyer Brown, the band made famous by their Star Search victory the first year of the contest, entertained those who gathered for the performance. Seemingly immediately after the Star Search victory, Sawyer Brown records were receiving radio play and their releases were climbing the charts. Three albums later, Sawyer Brown continues to be one of the most popular groups in country music. Their music consists of slow, country ballads such as "Used to Blue" and "Don't Fall Now". Sawyer Brown is also known for their upbeat hits including "Shakin'" and "Betty's Bein' Bad".

Sawyer Brown is actively involved in the music video industry. Their videos, featured on Country Music Television and the Nashville Network, are designed to boost record sales.

The music of Sawyer Brown is often upbeat, for example songs such as "Shakin'" and "Betty's Bein' Bad".

Jerry Jeff Walker, known for his hit "Red Neck (Up Against the Wall)", opened the Sawyer Brown concert held in Wisdom Gym.

The talent and good looks of lead singer Mark Miller make him a recognized and favorite member of the band, especially among the female fans.

Sawyer Brown offers more than a night of songs to the audience at one of their concerts. They pride themselves on being performers. They are exciting on stage, constantly in motion in order to get and keep the interest of the audience.

Sawyer Brown tends to break away from the somewhat conservative image of traditional country musicians. Their outrageous dress and attitude attracts a younger audience to the country music industry.

The play with its tragic ending is set in the late Depression years. This was the last major theatrical production of the Tarleton Players during the Spring Semester.

Audiences Thrilled By Leonard's DIVINERS

"The Diviners" was presented by the Tarleton Players from April 2nd to April 4th in the Fine Arts Center Auditorium. Written by James Leonard Jr., the play takes place in the small rural town of Zion, Indiana. "The Diviners" tells the story of an itinerant preacher who comes to town. The action centers around the preacher and a young boy. The boy, Buddy Layman, has a terrible fear of water due to his mother's death by drowning. Dr. Mary Jane Mingus served as both director and costume director for the production with her assistant director being P.C. Meither.

B<sup>eta</sup> BATTLES

The Betas sponsored their first major campus event in the Fine Arts Center as they hosted the Beta Battles — a game show similar to Card Sharks. Campus organizations entered four member teams in the contest. Sixteen organizational teams competed and the overall winner was determined by total points.

Beta members surveyed students around campus, keeping track of the answers. The survey questions were used in the contest as teams predicted the answers. The opposing team then had an opportunity to guess higher or lower and the correct team then won control of the card board.

The winner of the match went to the big board where points could be accumulated. The teams with the most points won prizes donated by Stephenville merchants.

Alpha Zeta took first place, winning a team trophy, individual trophies, and $250 in prizes. Second place went to the Industrial Arts club who received a team award and $150 in prizes. The third place winners, the Plowboys, received a team award and $100 in prizes.

Beta President Cathi Coan introduced emcee Joel Hillin to begin the night's event.

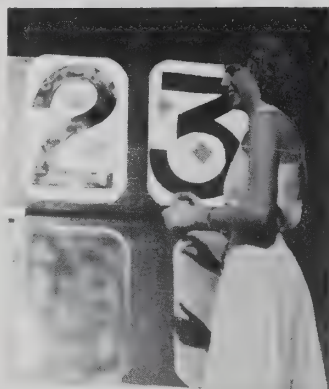

Vice President and Game Show Coordinator, Dee Dee Jacob presented awards to the winning teams including the third place Plowboys.

Beta Battles featured two "Vanna Whites". Niki Greenhaw, pictured here, and Melissa Heflin were in charge of turning cards.

Sets were constructed with help from the Beta Bruins. Audra Hastings, Social Chairman, headed the set committee.

Plowboy team member, Kirk Hensley, hugs "Vanna", Melissa Heflin at the Beta Battles.

Members of the Betas and a Lambda Chi team entered in the Battles test the microphones by singing a song at a practice session held the night before the contest.

Members of Alpha Chi were intent on keeping correct score in the competition. Jana McMullen served as spokesman for the Quiz Bowl.

Alpha Chi Quiz Bowl Tests Knowledge Of TRIVIA

The Spring semester was one of friendly competition as Alpha Chi, the Junior-Senior honor society at Tarleton, sponsored the first Quiz Bowl. Trivia type questions were answered in the single elimination tournament with team plaques awarded the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place teams. President Jana McMullen served as emcee. The most exciting matches were those which remained close, with winners often determined in the final speed round of questioning. Third place went to the BSU, while second place went to the Advocates. The Grassburr took first place with their team consisting of editor Cindy Houser, assistant editor Patricia Bennett, and photographer Bobby Davis.

The Betas entered two teams in the competition. Pledges were represented by one team. Felicia Filler, Melissa Heflin, and Cathi Coan represented the other Beta competitors.

Delta Zeta also entered two teams in the Quiz Bowl. One of the groups came close to beating the Baptist Student Union for the third place position.

The Grassburr won the Quiz Bowl competition by winning three matches. They beat teams representing Delta Chi, the BSU, and the Advocates.

Mason Dixon's entry in the bed race met with a few difficulties. Members of the crew discuss the crash landing they experienced as their bed, an equipment case with wheels, crashed into a pole in the parking lot.

Pi Sigma Epsilon's entry, The Ruby Red Passion Sled, took first place in the bed race.

Mason Dixon is becoming more recognized by the radio listening audience as their records receive more air play. Much of their popularity stems from their appearances on college campuses and at community dances.

Spring SFEST

T-CAB sponsored Spring Fest once again proved to be a funfilled and exciting event. Booths and activities were planned to provide students with an entertaining afternoon. After the planned activities, Mason Dixon, a band with a bright future in country music, took the stage for the free street dance arranged by T-CAB.

The afternoon activities included a road race by Delta Zeta, Wheel of Fortune by Delta Chi, and a button booth by the Betas. An ever popular festival event, the jail was operated by the RA's.

Excitement really picked up during the bed race. The first round featured Delta Chi against Gamma Sigma Sigma and Pi Sigma Epsilon against an entry from Mason Dixon. Delta Chi met Pi Sig in the finals as Mason Dixon crashed into pole and was eliminated. Pi Sig's entry, the Ruby Red Passion Sled, ran away with the bed race as Delta Chi lost its wheels at the starting line. Delta Chi made a valiant effort, however, as they picked up their "Crusin' Delta Chi" car and carried it across the finish line.

Teams from Gamma Sigma Sigma and Delta Chi await the beginning of their heat in the bed race. Delta Chi went on to win the heat, but they lost in the final race against Pi Sig.

The team from Mason Dixon races around the Island on an equipment box converted to a bed.

Pi Sig races toward victory in the bed race. Those pushing the bed were blindfolded; The person on the bed had to give directions to those pushing.

A sack race team consisted of a male and a female from various greek organizations. Several teams are shown in action as they head for the finish line.

Mike Deen and Marian MacDonald cheer on their team in the toilet paper race.

Greek Games Offer A Little Friendly COMPETITION

The Greek organizations of Tarleton held Greek Week, a week of competition and involvement for the sororities and fraternities of the University. Members of the organizations were separated and divided into teams. The teams were designated by color. The week consisted of softball games, a trivia competition, and a party at the Girl Scout Hut. The party was a theme party where those attending dressed as their favorite fairy tale or cartoon character.

Greek Week included the Greek Games held on the lawn in front of the Administration Building. Activities included tug of war, the toilet paper race, and the sack races.

The winning team for the week won gift certificates to Campus Corner. The Greek organizations with the greatest percentage of participation were also recognized. They included Kappa Alpha and Delta Zeta.

Kappa Alpha won the Greek Games for having the greatest percentage of members participating.

Greg Illingworth and fellow team members work hard to win a tug of war match.

Greek Week was filled with activities. An exciting part of the week was Greek Games held in the lawn in front of the Administration Building.

One event at the Greek Games was the wheelbarrow race. Dana Hancock and her partner race toward the finish line.

Symposiums Give Students A Chance To Hear SPEAKERS

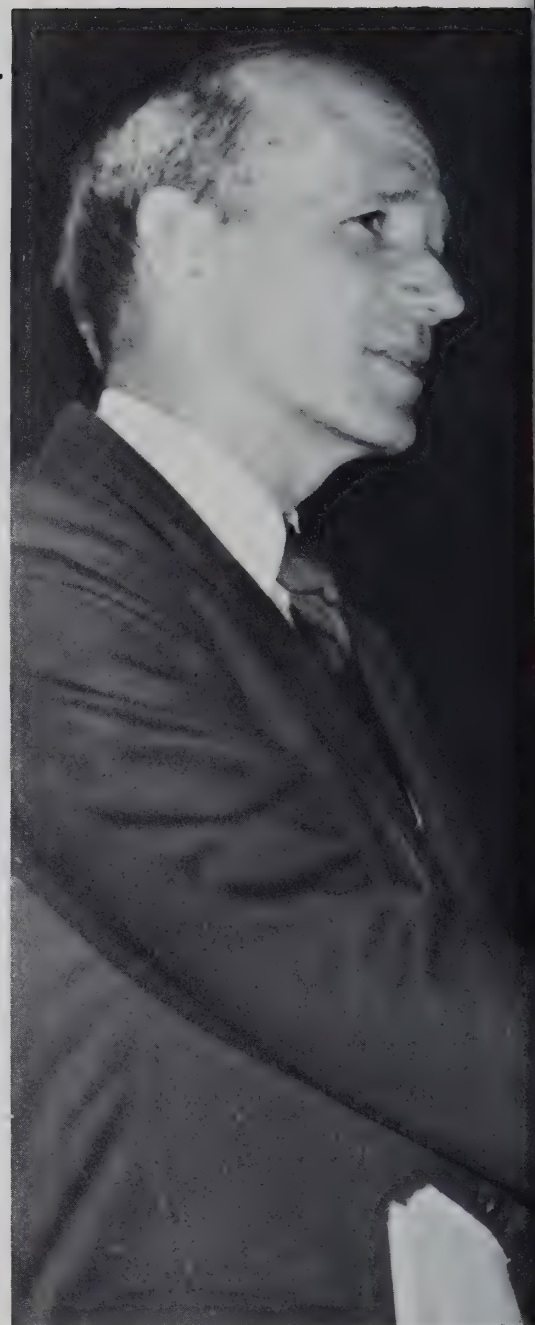

During the spring semester two symposiums were held for the benefit of Tarleton students. The First symposium discussed Vietnam while the second reported on medical issues. Located in room 116 of the Humanities and Business Building, the Vietnam Symposium was held in response to the movie "Platoon". After Dr. Donald Zelman and Dr. Michael Pierce gave background information on Vietnam and the American involvement, Dr. Craig Clifford reviewed the movie. A panel of five veterans gave their response to the controversial film. At this point students in the audience were given the opportunity to raise questions for the speakers. The symposium, which ran long due to the enthusiasm of the students who had filled the room to capacity, was successful in answering the questions the movie had generated.

The second symposium was a three day seminar on Medical Issues in Texas. With afternoon sessions at 4:00 and evening sessions at 7:30, students, faculty, and members of the community were able to hear speakers discuss medical ethics, the fitness trend, organ transplantation and donation, and the state of medicine in Texas.

Participation in the symposiums was substantial. Students, faculty, and those in the Stephenville community gathered to gain information provided in the seminars.

Dr. Cooper spoke in the Fine Arts Center Auditorium on Monday night. Dr. Don Zelman introduced him as the speaker. Dr. Hill (in the background) was the first speaker in the series as well as respondent for the other speakers.

Speaking at 4 o'clock on Tuesday, Dr. Baxter provided a very interesting discussion on transplant surgery and the need for donors.

In addition to the chili that was cooked at the Ag Farm, one participant cooked home-made stew for the crowd to enjoy.

Each team officially consisted of five members, however there were always extra hands to help with stirring, taste testing, or whatever else needed to be done.

Throughout the day, students walked from team to team sampling the chili and having a good time talking to friends.

Students Enjoy Seventh Annual Chili COOKOFF

Lambda Chi Alpha sponsored the seventh annual Chili Cookoff on Saturday May 2nd. Held at the Agriculture Farm, the fee for entering a chili team was $25. To meet the requirements for the cookoff, the chili had to be made from scratch. No fillers were allowed. Another rule was that no cooking could be done prior to setting up at the farm. Some teams were at the location as early as six or seven in the morning. The award for the best tasting chili went to the team from Bostocks.

In addition to the chili contest, activities such as horseshoes, volleyball, a jalepeno eating contest, and an egg toss kept students entertained. The day was filled with food, friends, and fun for all.

Because of the extreme heat, students sought shady spots in which they could relax, visit with friends, and enjoy the chili that each team had entered in the contest.

Friends, Food, and Fun . . .

Some chili teams had themes for their chili location. They decorated and had signs in order to reflect the theme. An award for best showmanship was presented to the team with the best theme development.

Chili Cookoff was a major social event for Tarleton in the Spring semester. Graduates from years past and friends of current TSU students visited for the weekend. They experienced a day of fun in the sun, sampling chili and socializing with those in attendance.

Spring—

Lambda Chi's Little Crescents sponsored the dunking booth during the day at the Cookoff. People from around campus served as dunkees. As usual, the dunking booth was kept busy as customers attempted to make those in the booth fall into the water.

Friends spent the day at the Ag Farm walking around and enjoying the day in the sun. The heat of the sun found most people with a drink in hand.

Delta Chi Holds First Road RALLY

Delta Chi held its first annual road rally on April 26th of the Spring Semester. Teams participating in the road race drove here in Erath County with check points along the way. The teams were given clues as to the points and then were left to their own wits. The event was a big success for Delta Chi and fun for all those who participated.

Seniors Say Goodbye To TSU. GRADUATION

The Spring Graduation for Tarleton State University was held on Sunday May 17 with two ceremonies to accommodate the graduates. Speaking at the 1:00 pm ceremony, Dr. James Boyd, Chairman of the Department of Education and Psychology at Tarleton, encouraged the graduates not to accept the "conditional limits". Dr. Alice Cushman, Professor in TSU's English Department, addressed the graduates in the 3:00 pm ceremony. Selected as the Spokesman for the Senior Class of 1987, Kevin Uptergrove, also chosen as the outstanding student from the School of Arts and Sciences, encouraged the students to make Tarleton proud. He also acknowledged the people without whom the graduates could not have completed their education. Kevin is a Pre-Med major from Hico. Betty Gosdin, an Elementary Education major from Glen Rose, was selected as the Outstanding Graduate from the School of Education and Fine Arts. An Industrial Education and Technology major from Fort Worth, Lee Sperry was chosen as the Outstanding Graduate from the School of Agriculture and Business. Dr. Jesse L. Tackett, Dean of the School of Agriculture and Business at TSU, was the recipient of the University's Presidential Award of Merit. Dr. Tackett was a 1955 graduate of Tarleton.

The three Outstanding Graduates for this semester were Kevin Uptergrove of Hico, School of Arts and Sciences; Lee Sperry of Fort Worth, School of Agriculture and Business; and Betty Gosdin of Glen Rose, School of Education and Psychology.

1986 Football season among BEST EVER

It was a season that will stand as one of the best in history. Tarleton State University's football team went 9-1-1 establishing the best record in the school's history. The final standing also gave Tarleton the distinction of having the best college football record in Texas.

Topping off the year was a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Benedictine College in the fifth annual Sunflower Bowl in Winfield, Kansas. Gaylon Bowser's 210 yards and three touchdowns made him the game's Most Valuable Player in Tarleton's 40-38 victory.

It was a year filled with exciting victories, great individual performances and team play, and moments to be lived over again and again in the memories of players, coaches, and fans.

But it didn't start out that way. Back on September 6, a lot of players must have stared at the scoreboard and wondered if this wasn't going to be another season of broken promises and shattered dreams. Panhandle State University had subdued the Texans with a 27-12 victory that saw Tarleton turned back on two scoring drives in the fourth quarter.

Still, there were glimmers of potential. Boo Jones had excited the few Tarleton fans present with a 97 yard kickoff return touchdown and junior transfer quarterback Danny David had directed the team well against a tough defense.

At home the next week against Howard Payne, Tarleton players got some indication that maybe they were going to get a few breaks their way during the season. Tarleton was down 21-14 with 40 seconds left in the game when the Howard Payne quarterback fumbled the ball on his own 20-yard line.

Six plays later David completed a pass to tight end Melvin Modesty who made a juggling catch in the end zone. Then on the two-point conversion, David fumbled the snap from center but was able to gain control of the ball and get into the end zone.

The Texans would next face their biggest test of the season as they journeyed to Searcy, Arkansas, for a game with Harding University.

A tremendous first half gave Tarleton a 14-6 lead but Harding came back with 11 fourth quarter points to tie the game at 17-17. A desperation drive got the Texans to the 23-yard line where a hurry-up 40-yard field goal attempt failed.

The Texans next pitted their 1-1-1 record at home against Texas Lutheran, the fourth straight scholarship opponent the team had faced. But Tarleton was not to be denied another victory. Boo Jones ran back another kickoff return touchdown, this one of 81 yards, and David hit Modesty with a 64 yard touchdown pass to give the Texans a 21-16 win.

Gaylon Bowser follows the lead block of Deral Henderson as Tarleton rolls up the yardage on the ground. Bowser gained 1028 yards on the season.

With an impressive 2-1-1 record against scholarship teams, the Texans opened Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association play with confidence. First up was a trip to Alpine to face Sul Ross State University. Although the Texans would manage just 19 yards passing, the ground game cranked out 309 yards and all the points Tarleton would need in a 14-6 win. The offensive line consistently opened huge holes for the backs and David ran the option to perfection, gaining 97 yards himself and flipping the ball twice to Bowser for touchdowns. The rushing performance would set a trend Tarleton would follow the rest of the season.

At homecoming the following week the Texans were geared for some offensive explosions and McMurry generously cooperated by turning the ball over three times in the first quarter. Tarleton would rack up 21 points in the first quarter on its way to a 38-22 bombardment. While the offense gained 378 yards, the defense limited McMurry to 63 yards rushing, sacking McMurry quarterbacks six times.

The Texans then faced the biggest game of the season as they traveled to Sherman to face Austin College. Tarleton had moved to 16th in the NAIA Division II national poll but the 5-1 Kangaroos were ranked 11th. In addition, Tarleton had not beaten the 'Roos in Sherman since 1978.

Things looked grim at the half as Austin College took a 10-6 lead but a fired-up Tarleton squad ripped off 18 third quarter points while the defense mauled the Kangaroos and held them scoreless. Bowser rushed for 110 yards for the second straight week and the 28-10 victory put Tarleton in command of the TIAA and at 5-1-1 on the year.

Despite a somewhat flat performance the next week at home with Sul Ross, Tarleton managed a 27-17 win. With Bowser gaining 97 yards and scoring two touchdowns and fullback Deral Henderson having his best game ever with 102 yards, the Texans gained 291 yards on the ground.

McMurry was next in line for the Texans who ventured to Abilene for the second part of this twice-yearly grudge match. McMurry quickly went on top 7-0 but the Texans scored 21 second quarter points. The highlight of the game came with under a minute left to play in the first half. Reserve quarterback Lee Jones took a pitch from David and launched a pass to a streaking Boo Jones that covered 93 yards. The touchdown play broke a school and conference record for long pass play. The second half, however, was dominated by defense. The Texan defenders came up with a blocked field goal to preserve a 21-14 win.

All that remained for Tarleton to go undefeated in TIAA play was the return game with Austin College at Memorial Stadium. There was little doubt from the outset of the game that this would be Tarleton's day to shine. The Texans led 24-7 at the half on the way to a 38-21 victory. Bowser rushed for 115 yards and scored three touchdowns as Tarleton gained 482 total yards, their best offensive production of the season. Meanwhile, Tarleton's defense tied a school record by gaining five interceptions, including two by cornerback Wayne Briggs.

The victory over Austin College made Tarleton's record 8-1-1 and placed the Texans 8th in the Division II poll. However, because the NAIA takes the top ranked teams from four geographical areas, Tarleton was bumped from the playoffs by the 9th ranked team, Hanover College, Indiana. The Texans finished just five rating points behind the 7th ranked team, Huron College, South Dakota.

The Texans, undefeated conference champions, would find a place to continue post-season play, however.

TARLETON MEMORIAL STADIUM

Texans finish as Sunflower CHAMPIONS

Although disappointed in failing to make the playoffs, the Texans had their season extended when they were invited to play in the Sunflower Bowl, an NAIA-sanctioned bowl game that pits two top-ranked teams not making the playoffs.

Tarleton's opponent, Benedictine College, finished the season at 7-2 and ranked 11th in the final poll. Both teams relied on a potent ground attack and a high-scoring affair was expected. Nobody was disappointed in that respect.

The Texans jumped out to a 17-0 lead but any thoughts of a blowout were eliminated when Benedictine scored on its next two drives to make the score 17-15. Tarleton added a touchdown to take a 25-15 halftime lead.

The second half saw Tarleton lose the lead and go down 38-31 early in the fourth quarter. But Bowser scored his third touchdown of the day and, following a Benedictine fumble, Mike Myers kicked a 21 yard field goal to give the Texans the 40-38 win.

The game saw Tarleton gain 426 yards of offense and Benedictine tally 504 yards of offense. But Tarleton's defense came away with three turnovers and a stingy fourth quarter effort that secured the victory.

It was, perhaps, symbolic of Tarleton's football season that Gaylon Bowser set a new rushing record by slashing for 210 yards in the final game. It was, after all, a season made for record-breakers.

Head Coach Bill Pringle and his staff of Bill Anderson, Carl Pleasant, Hal McAfee, and student assistants Boo Gayle, Richard Myklebust, Ward Whites, Kenneth Mims, and Henry Holbert turned the Texan football team into winners by getting team efforts each week.

Rightfully so, Tarleton's 1986 football season will be remembered as one of the best in the school's history.

Volleyball shows off Tarleton's TOP GUN

With five veterans returning for the 1986 volleyball season, Coach Pattielu Clark had every reason to believe the Texans would challenge for the conference title and again make the District VIII playoffs.

What she couldn't foresee was the Tex-Anns recording one of the best match records in voleyball history, finishing the season at 22-12. One thing was certain, however. The play of Kathy Buckler would be superior.

The top gun for the TexAnn volleyball team finished the season as a four-time all-conference and four-time all-District selection. Her spikes resulted in kills on 24 percent of all her attacks above the net.

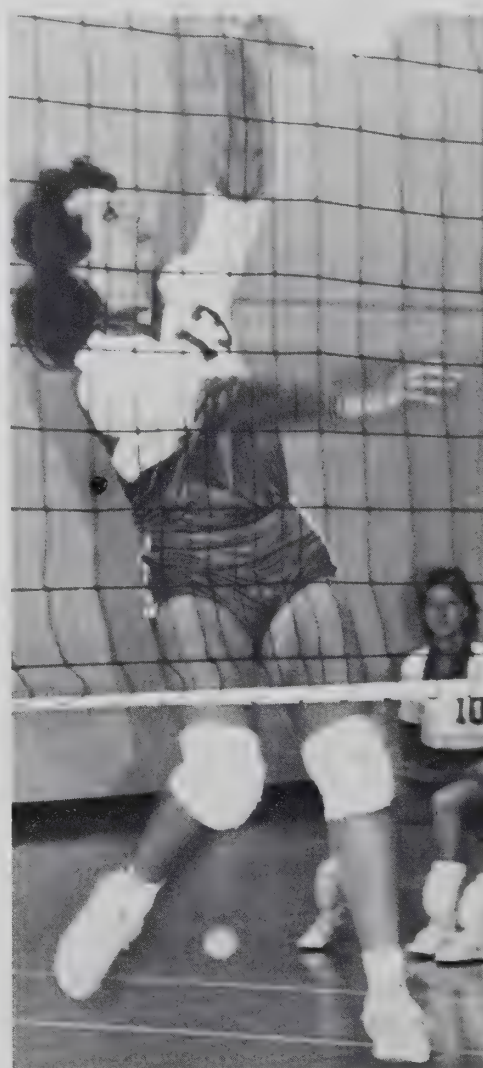

With Buckler leading the way, the Tex-Anns had five and six game match win streaks during the season. All-conference selection Cassie Myatt led the league in assists with 530 setups in 116 games. Fellow setter Dee Dee Gann recorded 408 assists as well.

Vets Pam Lewin and Elizabeth Pogorzelski, along with newcomer Kelli Bruton, gave the TexAnns a potent starting six. Although the conference title evaded them again, the team represented the conference in District competition for the second straight year.

Buckler, who would go on to set records during the basketball season, finished her four years of volleyball having played in 376 games. Her 1,194 kills will be a record hard to match at Tarleton.

Men's basketball triumphs in LAST GAMES

When the men's basketball team looks back on the 1986-87 season they'll probably remember just two things about the year; those last two conference games of the season.

Actually the season started out with a lot of promise. At one point the team was 4-1. In one of those victories forward Carl Fields scored a Tarleton single game record with 46 points.

But the season soon fell apart. The Texans lost the next fifteen games in a row. For Coach Sherman Perry, who's first child was born in December, and the rest of the team, those bitter memories were put behind in the end.

Playing co-leader Austin College for their first conference win, the Texans got fifteen points out of freshman Richard Zastoupil and pulled off a stunning 60-53 win. Zastoupil pulled off the play of the year when he stole the ball and drove the length of the court for basket in the last seconds.

One week later another freshman, Billy Sadler, scored sixteen points in Tarleton's 79-78 double-overtime victory against Sul Ross State University. It was Sadler who hit both the basket to send the game into the second overtime and the game winning basket.

The final games made the entire season more palatable, especially for seniors Carl Fields, John Jenkins, and Zachary Zastoupil who led the team in scoring all year long.

The 1986-87 season also introduced the three-point shot to college basketball. Jenkins, who joined the team at mid-semester, scored 22 three-pointers while Richard Zastoupil, also a mid-semester addition, hit 50 percent of his shots from the 19'9" range.

Above: John Jenkins puts some defense on a Sul Ross player. Jenkins, who joined the team at mid-semester, was Tarleton's most effective three-point shooter.

Right: Carl Fields scores against Austin College. Fields led the team in points and rebounds.

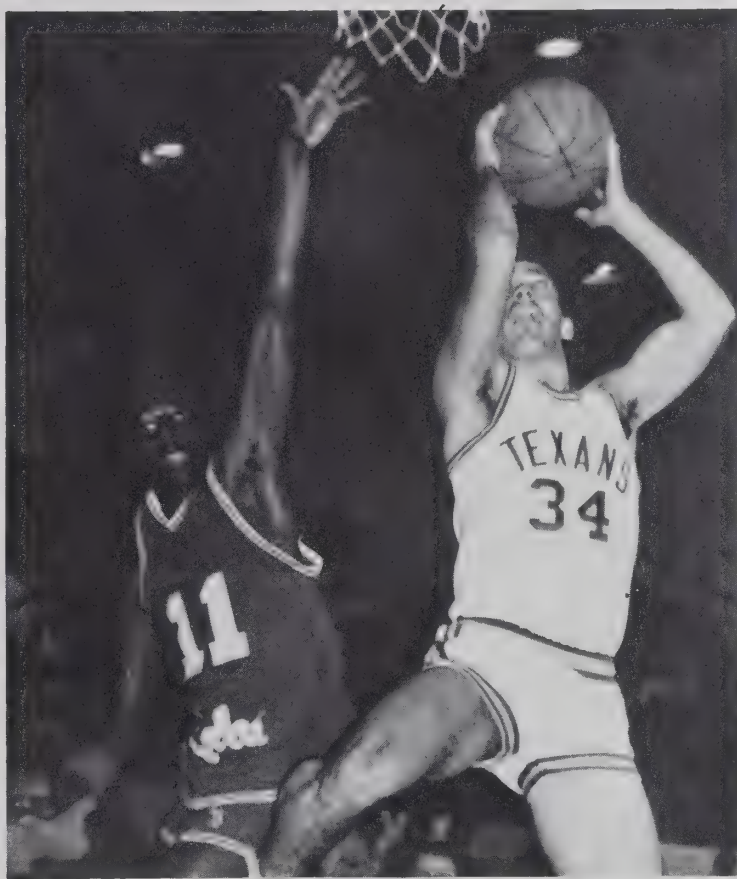

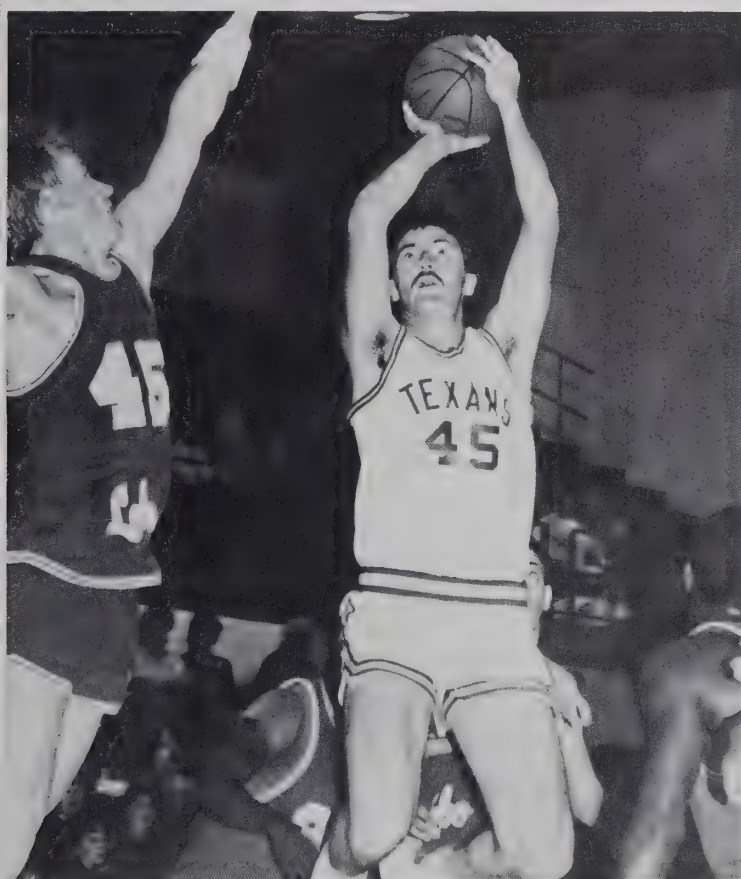

Above: Jim Watson goes in for an uncontested layup. Watson led the team with 85 assists while scoring eight points a game.

Above: Zachary Zastoupil fights for a rebound with two Sul Ross players. Zastoupil was third in scoring and second in rebounds on the team.

F TexAnn basketball season just FRUSTRATING

For most Tarleton women's basketball fans, the 1986-87 season will be remembered as the year the TexAnns lost the title. After wearing the T.I.A.A. crown for ten years, Tarleton gave it up this season to Sul Ross.

That the season will be remembered for that is just another example of the frustrations that the season reflected. Unlike past TexAnns teams, this unit just never clicked together for very long.

That's not to say the season wasn't filled with its share of good moments. Toward the late part of the year the TexAnns put together back-to-back 100 point games and pulled off a stunning upset over Texas Wesleyan.

As she was during volleyball season, Kathy Buckler was the dominate force on the TexAnn team. The senior performer moved into the third place in the career scoring chart in TexAnn basketball history and into second place in career rebounding. Her 19.3 points a game set a Tarleton season scoring average record.

Buckler was the leading scorer in 16 games and the leading rebounder in 20 games. She scored over thirty points in two games. Freshman Melanie Richburg, who had 27 and 29 point games during the season, helped Buckler and the TexAnns inside.

When Tarleton had to rely on the outside game it got superior performances from sharp-shooters Pam Webb and Jana Weidner. The two combined for 22 points and eight assists per game.

The women's basketball team used the three-point shot in just six games during the year. In those games Webb was 11 of 23 and Weidner hit 5 of 17. It was a Webb three-pointer as the thirty second clock expired that helped beat Texas Wesleyan.

Above: Kathy Buckler goes up strong with a shot over Austin College players from the side of the basket. Buckler finished her four years at Tarleton with 1,712 points (third on the career charts) and 1,065 rebounds (second on the career charts). She led the team in scoring with 19.3 points and rebounding with 10 per game.

Track & Field WINNING

Mark down two more championships for Tarleton State University in track and field.

Since forming the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1976, the Texans and TexAnns have been the force of the league. Tarleton's men have won nine conference titles and Tarleton's women have won ten TIAA crowns.

In 1987, both teams successfully defended their titles, dominating the competition on the host Austin College track. The men scored 84 points and the women scored 83 points and neither was threatened after the field events were finished.

D'Andrea Gadberry, named the meet's Outstanding Field Performer, took first place in the high jump, long jump, and triple jump, scored in the 100 and 200 meter runs and the 100 hurdles, and ran a leg on all three of Tarleton's winning relay teams.

Teammate Rana Cox scored in eight events and finished first in the 400 meter and Cindy Garner, named the meet's Freshman of the Year, scored in six different events.

Other firsts for Tarleton came from Lashauna Jones in the shot put, Tassie Long in the discus, and Laurie Harveson in the 100 hurdles.

Tarleton's men scored heavily in the field events with Terry Talton winning both the long jump and triple jump. Other firsts went to Bobby Boone in the high jump, Deral Henderson in the shot put, Keith Robinson in the pole vault, and Mark Heachten in the discus.

Tarleton's only running firsts came in the 1500 meter run, where Curtis Hurst took first and Ronnie Zoch placed second, and the 400 meter relay with the team of Mike Hancock, Sul Ross, Terry Talton, and Boo Jones.

Laurie Harveson strides over a hurdle on her way to winning the 100 meter event at the TIAA championships. Harveson successfully defended her title from last year.

Bobby Boone wins the high jump at the conference championships with a 6'7" jump. Boone had early gone 6'10" at the Tarleton Relays. Paul Allison of Tarleton was second.

Terry Talton won both the long jump and the triple jump at the conference championships.

Despite the late handoff on the first exchange between Mike Hancock and Sul Ross, Tarleton won the 400 meter relay in near record time.

Dee Gadberry makes a successful handoff to Rana Cox as the TexAnns run the 800 medley relay. Tarleton's women won all three relay events at the conference meet.

Rana Cox makes a two-point landing in the long jump pit. Cox was third in the long jump and triple jump.

Keith Robinson stretches to clear fifteen feet in the pole vault. Robinson won his specialty at the TIAA meet.

Dee Gadberry gets airborne in the long jump. Gadberry was the meet's Outstanding Field Performer, winning the long, triple, and high jumps.

Mike Hancock at full stride in the 100 meter dash heat.

Rana Cox ran away from the field in winning the 400 meter dash.

Mark Heachten successfully defended his conference title in the discus at the TIAA championship held at Austin College.

Ronnie Zoch and Curtis Hurst run in the 1500 meters. Hurst took first and Zoch second in the event.

Deral Henderson gives the shot put a mighty heave for first place.

Lashuana Jones puts everything behind her winning toss in the shot put.

LEARNING

No one ever said it was going to be easy. Those might be some of the words the TexAnn tennis team is using to describe the 1987 season. The program, in only its second year, is still learning the ropes.

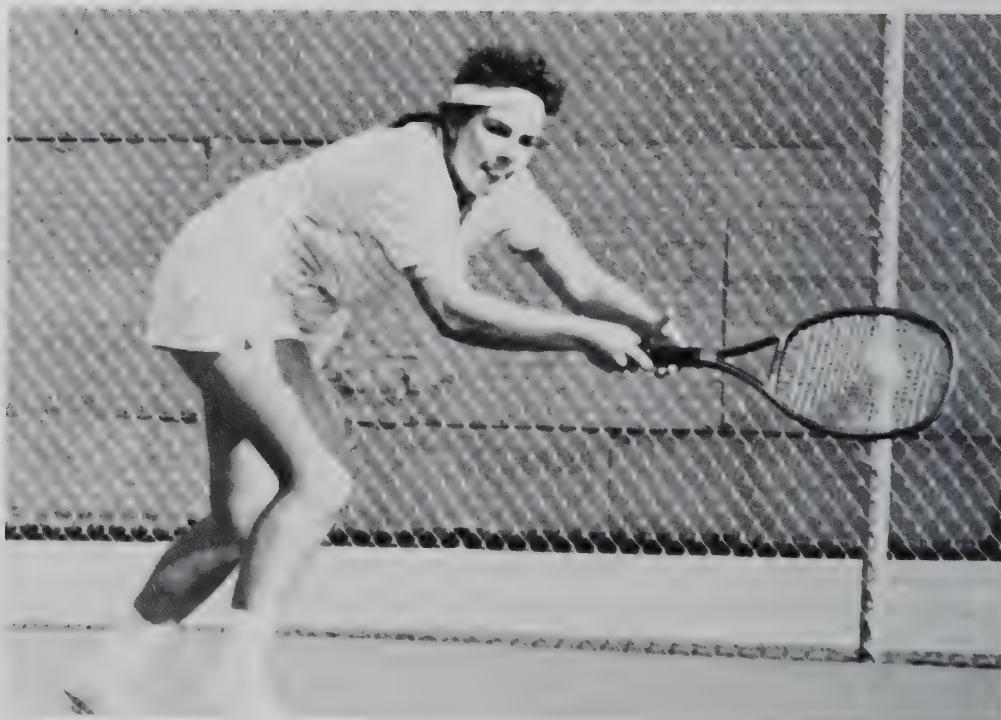

Highlighting the season was an early victory against Sul Ross State University in Alpine.

When the team got to the conference meet, however, nothing seemed to go Tarleton's way and the TexAnns came home without a victory in singles or doubles.

With a team of underclassmen, however, coach Pattielu Clark promises that the Tarleton women's tennis team will be a force to deal with in conference in the coming years.

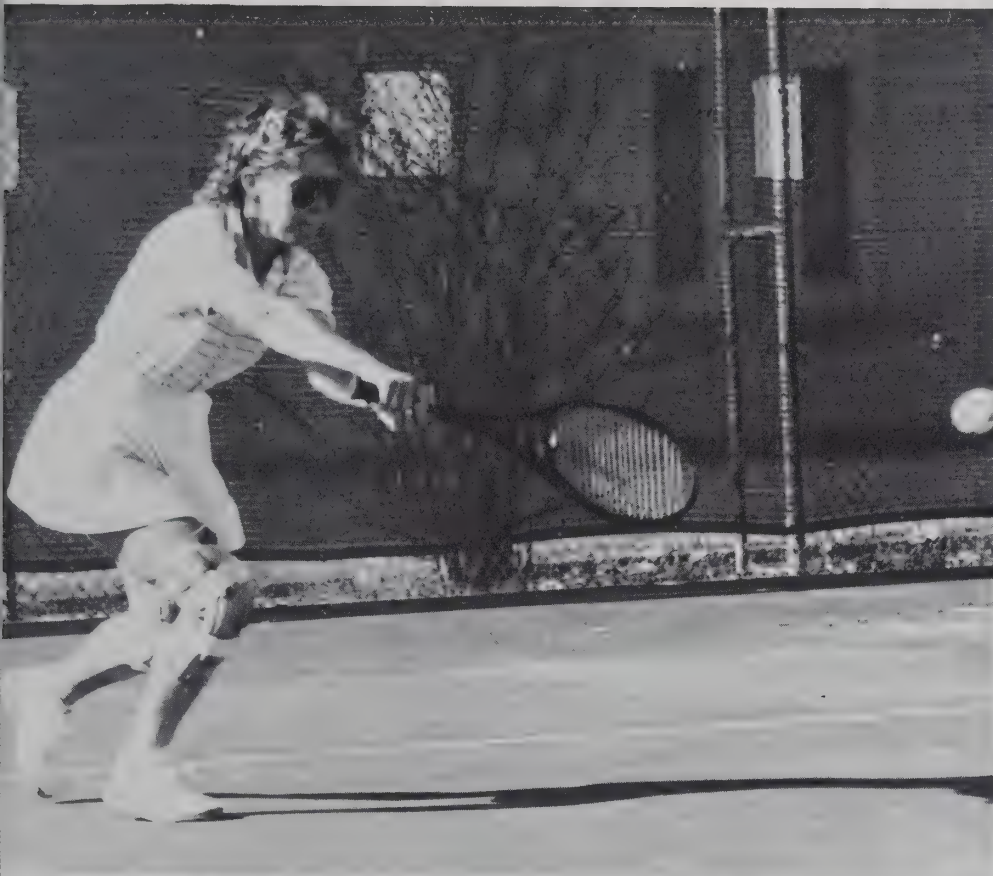

Top ace for the TexAnns throughout the season was junior Cassie Myatt, here attacking at the net. Myatt provided some of the best action for the TexAnns and was always pitted against the best at every other school.

Jana Scribner stretches to make a backhand shot at the TIAA conference meet.

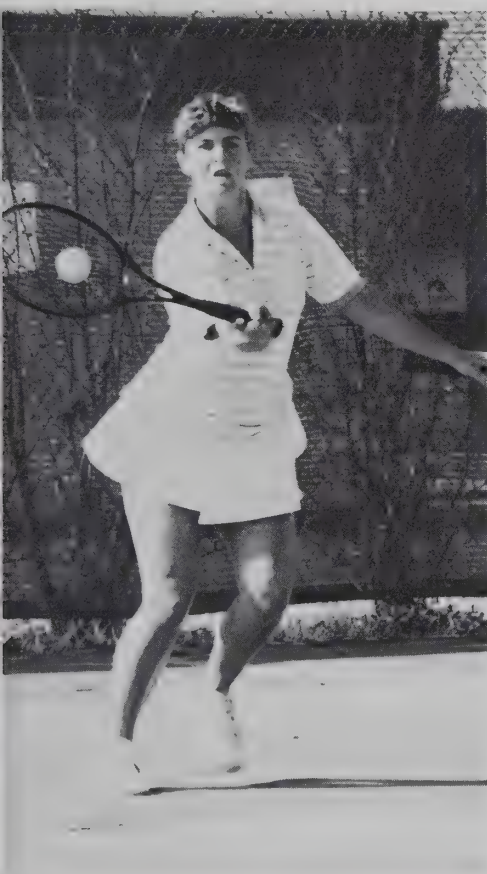

Laurie Harveson gets to the ball with a two-handed backhand shot. Harveson was a three-sport athlete in 1987, lettering in tennis, track and field, and basketball.

Jill Thackerson, who teamed with Cassie Myatt in doubles play, returns a shot.

Pam Boone strokes a forehand return at the conference championship tournament.

1987 TENNIS TEAM: Front: Laurie Harveson and Cassie Myatt; Back: Coach Pattielu Clark, Jill Thackerson, Pam Boone, and Jana Scribner.

T Golf Team safe at THIRD

Tarleton's golf team could never be said to be happy at third place in the conference tournament, but from the outset the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship was never in doubt.

McMurry College waltzed out to a 32 stroke lead on the first eighteen holes of the 108 hole championship tournament and never looked back. Tarleton found itself dogging, but never quite catching Austin College. The Texans, however, were always safely ahead of Sul Ross State University.

Despite being out of the race, Tarleton golfers had some good rounds of golf and Jon Day made a run at the all-conference team at one point by shooting a 73 at Stephenville. The team also got an extra dose of experience by competing in the District VIII tournament at the end of the year.

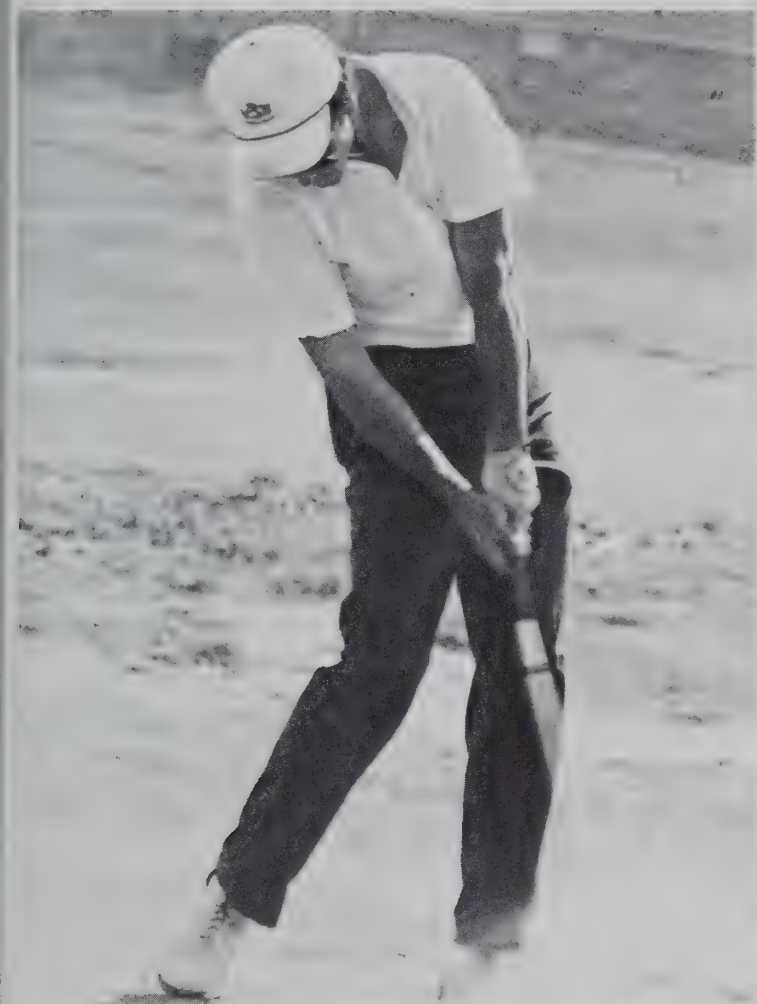

Troy Montgomery lines up a short putt on the Stephenville greens.

Chad Campbell concentrates on a long distance putt in the morning sun.

Larry Ball fires a chip shot out of a rough spot on the Legends Country Club course in Stephenville.

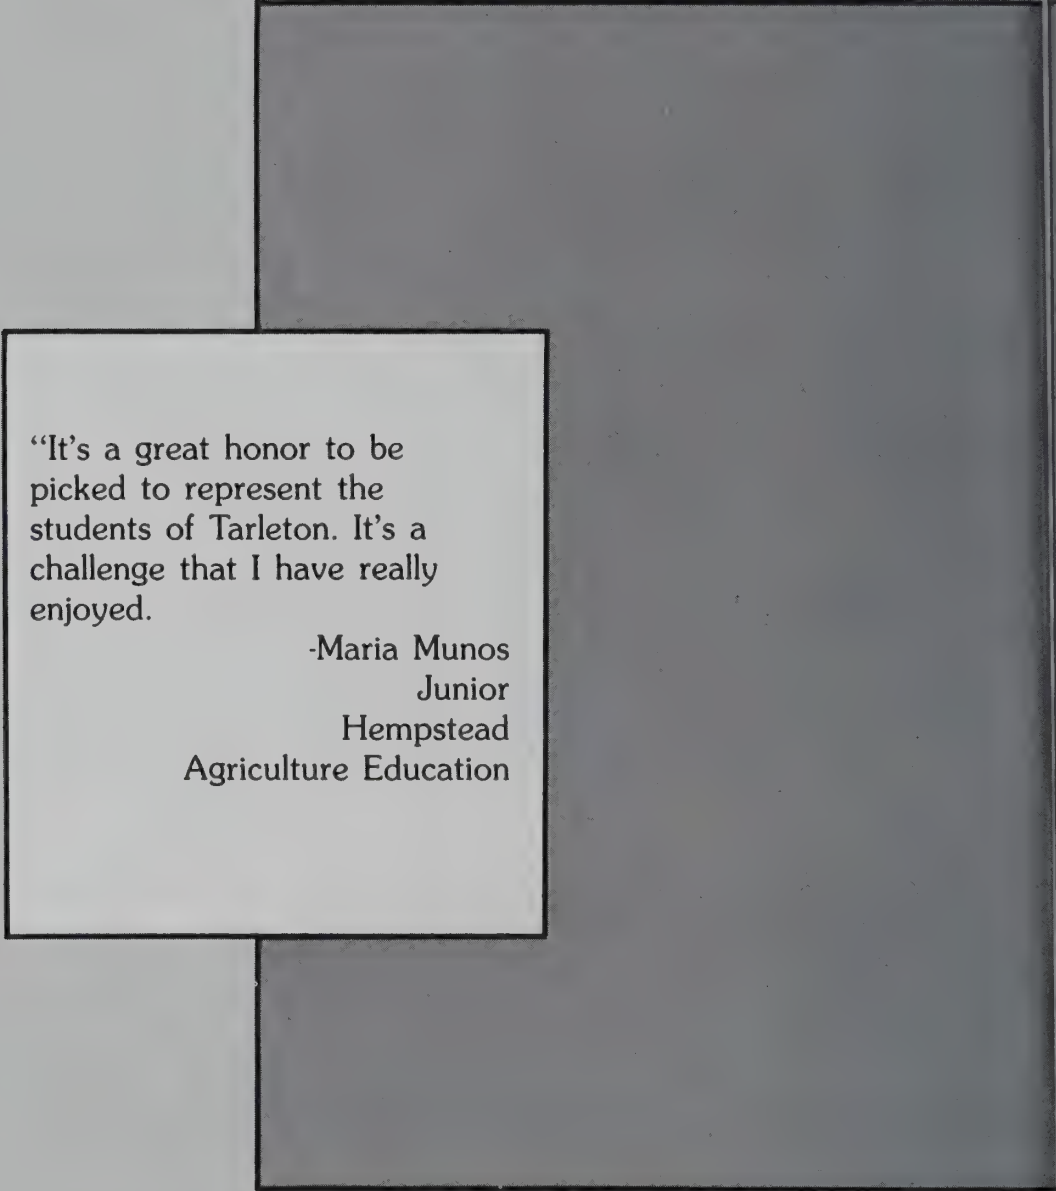

Jon Day drives off the tee at Legends. Day was Tarleton's top golfer and finished seventh overall in the conference.

Greg Wright hits a long iron shot from the fairway at Legends, Tarleton's home course.

1987 GOLF TEAM: Chad Campbell, Larry Ball, Jon Day, Troy Montgomery, and Greg Wright.

Tarleton is a very special place, and each year a student spends here makes facing the fact that you will one day have to go on to new things seem a little sadder. There is a comfort in knowing that you always have your memories, after all, no other experience in your life will be quite like that of TSU.

Students Pack Memories For A Look Back

Boxes filled the rooms. Walls were stripped of posters and pictures. Students gathered belongings and prepared for the summer. Old photographs, football programs, mangled notebooks, and assorted treasures were packed up to be stored and cherished. Along with these physical reminders were the memories — memories of all night cram sessions, research papers, football games, and parties. For the graduating seniors, these memories would represent years of hard work and a period in their lives that had come to an end. Undergraduates could reflect on the past semesters and look forward to the next. Neither could forget the University's affect on their lives, touching them in a special way. For students Tarleton had become and would continue to be home. No other life experience could be quite like the days spent at TSU.

"There are many things I'll remember about this school year. I'll remember being nominated for Homecoming Queen, being a cheerleader, and all the new people I met."

TSU Can't Be Replaced, There's Nothin' Like It!

Saying goodbye. No one likes to say it; Some people refuse to say it. It often seems so final. The end of the spring semester, the end of another school year, is a time filled with goodbyes. For those returning the next fall, goodbyes may only be for the summer. But for others, the goodbyes are longer lasting, often permanent. Those graduating, transferring, or just not returning say goodbye to friends they may not see for a while. They also say goodbye to Tarleton. They know they will miss the lifestyle they knew at Tarleton — the dances in The Cave, chasing the Poo on Monday nights, gatherings in the room down the hall to watch a scary movie.

Saying goodbye. Hugs. Exchanging addresses. Sometimes tears. Life at Tarleton is simple. It is the simple things, the little things, that are often missed the most when changes occur. Leaving a place that has been so important in a person's life is never easy. But some consolation exists in having memories. Memories last forever. They never say goodbye.

Tarleton ... There's Nothin' Like It!

"Saying goodbye to friends is always the hardest part of the semester."

THE GRASSBURR

In picking a theme for this year's book my co-workers and I had a very difficult time. We found it extremely hard to find just the right idea to describe Tarleton. We all agreed that this University is special, unlike any other. And thus, we felt we had the perfect theme:

TARLETON – THERE'S NOTHIN' LIKE IT!!

We feel it says it all, and we hope you share that feeling. I hope that this yearbook will help you to keep the memories of Tarleton alive in your heart.

Working as the Grassburr Editor has been a privilege, and I have considered it a great honor. It has enabled me to do something for the University and the students who have given me so much. I would like to thank the people without whose help and hard work the Grassburr could not have been finished, my Assistant Editor Patricia Bennett, who has somehow managed to remain my closest friend, and our Photographer Bobby Davis, who has kept the two of us entertained for an endless number of hours. I owe special thanks to our Advisor Reed Richmond, who has survived the three of us working together, and to Mary Anne Foreman, who always seemed to know exactly what we needed. I would also like to thank my parents for all of their love and support. Thank you all!

Sincerely,

Cindy Houser
